FRIDAY
MARCH

24 CREATE
IN PLACE

Create at your work, at school, or at home

Get creative wherever you are and whenever you want, and share your work #352CREATES

We're seeking local cultural groups, artists, community agencies, businesses and individuals to encourage creativity at home and in the workplace. Co-workers, students and neighbors can get together and enjoy a hands-on creative project. Your own creativity is a fun and easy way to be healthy and happy. Show us what you create by sharing on social media using #352Creates

SATURDAY
MARCH

25 CREATE IN COMMUNITY

Host a creative community event at any venue of your choosing

Invite the public to create together at a gathering place as part of the 352CREATES community

We're looking for individuals or groups to host free creative activities that are open to the public, regardless of creative experience or skill. The activities can include hands-on art-making, performances, gardening and more. Anyone and everyone can be creative and have fun!

GAINESVILLE: We're providing Depot Park as a venue! We are seeking community groups and individuals to host family friendly activities throughout the park from 10am-2pm.
